BYLAWS OF THE
UTAH ENGINEERS COUNCIL

As amended by action of the Executive Board, May 6, 2014
Ratified by the Member Societies, May 7, 2014

ARTICLE I
NAME AND PURPOSE

1. The name of this organization is the UTAH ENGINEERS COUNCIL (UEC). The Council is a coalition of Utah chapters, sections or organizations of professional engineering societies.

2. Its function is to bring together the leaders of the engineering profession in Utah for consultation, advice, discussion, and action on matters of common interest.

3. Its purposes are: (a) to advance the art and science of engineering for the general welfare of the people of Utah; (b) to promote cooperation among the various branches of engineering and science in Utah; (c) to develop recommendations regarding public policies wherein the application of the art and science of engineering will contribute to the general welfare; (d) to promote research and studies in engineering areas; (e) to promote dissemination of knowledge and information in the various fields of engineering and science; (f) to foster public recognition of the engineering profession; (g) to maintain a high professional standard among its members; (h) to work for advancement of engineering education; (i) to provide a medium for cooperative action by its member societies on matters beyond the scope of their individual organizations.

4. To achieve the purposes of the Council, three primary objectives are identified. (1) To publish an annual Professional Engineering Technical Journal; (2) Plan and conduct an annual Engineering Week Awards Banquet; and (3) Fund engineering student scholarships.

ARTICLE II
MEMBERSHIP

1. The membership of the Council shall consist of Member and Affiliate societies. These societies shall subscribe to these Bylaws and have purposes which are consistent with the purpose of the UEC as outlined in Article I.

a. Member societies shall be Utah chapters, sections or organizations of professional engineering societies.
b. Affiliate societies shall be Utah chapters, sections or organizations of other professional societies which desire to support and participate in the activities of the UEC. Affiliate societies do not have voting privileges, and their representatives are not eligible to serve as elected officers of the UEC.

2. Organizations who have commercial, trade or bargaining functions are not eligible for membership as either Member or Affiliate societies.

3. A society petitioning to join the UEC shall submit a request in writing with a copy of its constitution and/or bylaws. An affirmative vote of three-fourths of the voting Board members present shall be required to accept the society as a Member or Affiliate. 4. Any society may withdraw from the Council by giving written notice specifying the intent of withdrawal and the reasons for the withdrawal at least 30 days prior to the planned withdrawal date.

5. Any society may be dropped from the Council by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of the voting Council Board members following a mail ballot of the full membership of the Council Board.

6. Any society which fails to pay their annual dues assessment within a 90 day period, after notification, will lose their voting privileges. After an additional 90-day period, they may be dropped from the Council by an affirmative vote of three-fourths of the voting Council Board members following a mail ballot of the full membership of the Council Board.

ARTICLE III

ADMINISTRATION

1. A representative from each Member society, the elected officers and the two most immediate Past-Chairs, shall constitute the voting members of the Council Board (Board). The representatives from Affiliate societies shall be non-voting members of the Board.

2. Each society shall appoint an official representative and an alternate to serve on the Board. It is recommended that appointments be made for two-year terms and that appointments be made on alternative years. Representatives should be a present officer or member of the Board of Directors of the local chapter or section of that society.

3. The activities of the Council shall be administered by an Executive Committee (see Article VII, Section 1) with the approval of the Council Board.

4. It shall be the responsibility of the society representative to keep their members informed of the activities of the Council and to promote the activities of the Council within their society.

5. It shall be the responsibility of the representatives to inform the Board if a planned action would in any way conflict with the constitution and/or bylaws of a society. In such cases, the Board will act to eliminate or minimize such conflict.

6. Each society representative must serve on at least one of the UEC functioning committees. The society representatives are encouraged to chair or vice chair UEC committees and solicit their respective society members to volunteer on UEC committees according to UEC bylaws.

ARTICLE IV PROCEDURE

1. The members of the Board present at a regularly scheduled meeting shall transact the business of the Board, except for those actions specified in Article II, Sections 5 and 6.

2. Any proposed action by the Board shall be referred to the Member societies if requested by representatives of any two Member societies. The Board may take action 30 days after referral to the Member societies.

3. Any Member society may file a written dissent within 30 days after any action by the Board. Upon receipt of such dissent, the Board shall reconsider the original action in light of the dissent, and a written answer will be given confirming or denying the dissent.

4. "Robert's Rules of Order" shall govern all questions of order which are not otherwise covered in these bylaws.

ARTICLE V MEETINGS

1. The Board shall hold a regular meeting each month except in June, July and August.

2. Special meetings of the Board may be convened at the call of the Chair, or upon request of representatives of three member societies.

3. At the regular May meeting of each year:
   a. The out-going officers and committees shall make their final reports of the previous year.
   b. The in-coming officers shall be installed.

4. Minutes shall be kept at all Board meetings held. Distribution shall include one copy to each Board member (including alternatives) and to each society president or chair and secretary.
5. An agenda for each Board meeting shall be presented to the Board members at least three days prior to the meeting. Any Board member may have an item put on the agenda for a meeting by timely submission thereof. The Board may refuse to consider a particular action unless it is on the agenda.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

1. The officers of the Council shall be a Chair, Vice-Chair, and Secretary-Treasurer. The normal term of office for each is one year. Unless there is sufficient reason to the contrary, the Vice-Chair shall succeed the Chair each year.

2. No more than one elected officer shall be a representative of the same Member society. Officers will be chosen from those who are Member society representatives at the time the election takes place or who have been a UEC officer or a Member society representative at any time during the previous two years.

3. The officers of the ensuing year shall be elected at the regular April Board meeting, each Member society representative or alternate present casting one vote.

4. Nominations to office shall be with the prior advice and consent of the nominee.

5. The incumbent Secretary-Treasurer shall notify officers of their election by a letter accompanied with a copy of these bylaws.

6. The duties of each officer shall be those commonly associated with the office to which that officer is elected.

7. The Council officers shall provide mandatory training to the new officers and committee chairs to ensure understanding of their responsibilities. This training shall include distribution of the UEC Training and Responsibilities document. A current training and responsibilities document shall be available on the UEC website. For specific responsibilities of Board officers and members please refer to this Training and Responsibilities document.

8. In the absence of the Council Chair at a Board meeting, the Vice-Chair shall officiate. In the absence of both of these, the Secretary-Treasurer shall officiate.

9. If a vacancy should occur among the officers of the Council, it shall be filled for the remainder of the term by election at a regularly scheduled Board meeting, each Member society representative present casting one vote.

9. An Executive Secretary may be appointed annually by an affirmative vote of the voting Board members. If appointed, the Executive Secretary will provide a telephone answering service for the Council, a current mailing, email and telephone list of all Board members, and society officers and representatives. Other duties and monthly compensation will be determined by action of the Board. The Executive Secretary will collect from each society representative an electronic list of each society member providing their mailing and email address for the sole purpose of communicating Council information to the Council members. The Executive Secretary will support the Council in distribution of information to the Board and Council members; maintaining meeting minutes; maintain the UEC website and maintain historical records for the Council.

10. An officer may be removed by a three-fourths vote of the voting Board members.

ARTICLE VII
COMMITTEES

1. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE: Between Board meetings the affairs of the Council will be conducted by an Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will be made up of the elected officers of the Council and the two most recent Past-Chairs.
